Dineen got in a safe hit to the igheid, thamilton sent a high bounder to Davis, who shot the ball to Gleason in time to force Direen at second. Hamilton stole second easily, being sided by a wild pitch. Hickman then made a beautiful stop of Collins's hot grounder and nailed the batter at first, Hamilton reaching third on the out. Tenney ended all chances for a run by soaking a grass cutter to Davis. No runs.

Hawley's bounder struck Dineen's hands and bounded to Long, who threw Pink out at first by a close call. Smith slammed a long fly to sleep right and Freeman collared it. Von Haitren was in no hurry to swipe at wide balls and got a pass. Van then tried to steal second, but was easily caught on Clement's pretty line throw to Lowe. No runs.

Stabl slammed the ball over the rightfield ropes for a home run. Long afted a high source, which Selbach made a pretty catch of. Freeman singled, but in trying to stretch the hit lato a twobagger he was caught on Selbach's areat

Sullivan's liner was taken in by Kendall, who put him out unassisted. Coolidge managed Guerneey's popfly, Hirsch's grounder went to Clark, who sent it to Kendall in ample time. No runs. George tok the bat for Harvard and filed out to Co. Clark got to first on a scratch hit and Stillman advanced him by a warm liner over second base. Yale now made a triplet of errors. Kendall sent the ball to Robertson: he had a choice and sent the ball to third base to cut off Clark. It was a wild throw and Clark, followed by Stillman, came home, Hirsch now tried to get Kendall at third. He threw wildly and Kendall got home. Coolidge made or pretty hit to second and reached first safely Wendell made a safe hit. Rold went out on a grounder, but Coolidge reached third and Wendell stole second. Devens struck out. Three runs.

Robertson started the fourth inning by going out on a light grounder to Stillman. Quinby banged a fly which Coolidge manipulated. Camp sent a swift low fly to Devens, who caught it by falling all over himself, thus relieving the Elis. No runs.
Finche flied the first hall to Guernsey. George swatted the ball to Barnwell at centre field, but Barnwell could not hold the ball. Clark hobbled to first after being hit by a pitched ball, thereby advancing Clark. Stillman could not find the ball and was the second man out. eKndall made a safe hit to left field and everybody jumped a base. Coolige got his base on balls and eGorge sauntered home. Wendell's fly was caught by Hirsch. Three men were left on bases. One run.

fought recklessly, and if any other fighter had been boxing the Sallor but Kenney then, Sharkey's chances of winning would have been very slim.

While Sharkey has already beaten Rublin, and accomplished the trick in less than one round, it is safe betting that he won't duplicate it in this fight.

Rublin is training for the battle at Owen Ziezler's gymnasium at Bath Beach, and is in excellent condition. He weighs 195 pounds at present and expects to enter the ring two pounds less.
In speaking of the fight Rublin sald:
"I never felt so confident in all my life
